TWO MEN ARRESTED.

One for Murder and the Other for Rubberv.

This afternoon just before going to press, two prisoners were brought in from the country one, by Sheriff Fly, being a Mexican leader of a band of be one of the band who robbed the postoffice and store at Solomonville, and later the poses had a brush wish the gang in the Dos Cabes a mountains. The gang is known as the Escabosa band and capture of this Mexican is an important arrest.

Mr. Zack Taylor was also brought in by a deputy from Pearce and is charged with the murder of J. D. Smith at Bowie, the particulars and cause of the killing being very meagre. Mr. Taylor who is an elderly looking man and exceedingly deaf, was seen by a PROSPECTOR reporter but the prisoner refused to be interviewed until he had consulted his attorney, and would not shed any light on the affair whatever. He admitted that Smith and himself had quarrelled but would not commit himself any further. He has lived in that section 7 or 8 months.
